

Environmental Programs and Plans (PBA/PCA)

In the phase of obtaining the Installation License (LI), depending on the size and polluting potential of the enterprise, the environmental control agency may require a Basic Environmental Plan (PBA) / Environmental Control Plan (PCA), which consists of executive projects that will guide the mitigating, compensatory and control actions of the impacts previously identified in the socio-environmental studies.